

INTERSEP™ - PARTICLE SEPARATION FROM GAS

The InterSep high performance separation system is designed and manufactured to separate particulate contaminants from natural gas and vapor streams. Preventing fouling and corrosion in dry gas streams, coal seam gas and fuel gas, for example, is critical to protect pipelines, valves and other gas processing equipment.